Two Hundred Years Old and Still Good

IN the recently opened American Wing of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City, hundreds of passersby stop every day to admire the original china closet from which the design illustrated here was taken. It is over 200 years old.

That old cabinet is faithfully reproduced in Curtis Woodwork for your home today. While especially adapted to the Colonial house, it will also look well in the home of English tyne, and it has also been tastefully used in Spanish houses.

This china closet is an example of the many beautiful designs which Curtis Woodwork offers home-builders, not only in cabinet work but also in stairs, trim, doors, windows, frames.

Design alone, however, is not all that Curtis Woodwork offers you. It has quality through and through in every detail of materials and construction. Yet Curtis Woodwork is no higher in price, even if it does give you better designs, material and workmanship, than ordinary millwork. In fact, it often costs considerably less when all expense items are taken into consideration.

Come in and let us show you some Curtis designs and help you fit them into your building plans. Ask for the free booklet, "Curtis Woodwork," helpful and interesting to builders.

Salem.—An agricultural council recently organized in Roanoke county is endeavoring to secure a farm demonstration agent for the county.

Richmond.—The "hit-and-run" game, as played by motorists, will be a felony in Virginia if the recommendations of Motor Vehicle Commissioner James M. Hayes, Jr., are adopted by the General Assembly.

Richmond.—In spite of the cold weather, the November report of the State Prohibition Department shows an increase in operations, Colonel John R. Saunders announced upon the receipt of the report from Harry B. Smith.

Richmond.—"No organization in the State is accomplishing a finer work nor giving greater returns to the people than the Children's Home Society of Virginia." This was the declaration of Governor E. Lee Trinkle in an address to the worker.

Richmond.—W. H. Wren, of Big Stone Gap, has been appointed representative of the Motor Vehicle Commissioner in the counties of Wise and Lee. Mr. Wren will represent Motor Vehicle Commissioner Hayes in that territory in the sale of license tags.

Lynchburg. — "The world is not against the farmer, it just wants what you've got," C. S. Barrett, of Union City, Ga., told the Seventeenth annual convention of the Virginia Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union here.

Richmond.—Collectors of internal revenue have been authorized to grant time extensions for filing income tax returns, Collector John C. Noel announced. Heretofore, this authority was reserved exclusively by the commissioner at Washington.

Newport News.—Newport News will have to adopt a more liberal policy toward its schools if its children are to have a fair show and training that will enable them to compete with the children of the nation, Joseph H. Saunders, superintendent of schools, told the board of school trustees.

Richmond.—Checks amounting to $732,217.08 were mailed out to the various cities and counties in the State by C. Lee Moore, Auditor of Public Accounts, to be used for the public schools. The counties received $576,704.55 and the cities $155,512.53. Richmond's share being $42,227.50.

Black-Draught Brings Relief for Tight, Bloated Feeling.

"I had indigestion," says Mr. W. B. Boukenight, of Ballentine, S. C. "Working out, I got in the habit of eating fast, for which I soon paid by having a tight, bloated feeling after meals. This made me very uncomfortable.

"I would feel stupid and drowsy, didn't feel like working. I was told it was indigestion. Some one recommended Black-Draught and I took it after meals. I soon could eat anything any time.

"I use it for colds and biliousness and it will knock out a cold and carry away the bile better and quicker than any liver medicine I have ever found."

Eating too fast, too much, or faulty chewing of your food, often causes discomfort after meals. A pinch of Black-Draught, washed down with a swallow of water, will help to bring prompt relief.

Black-Draught gently helps the over-taxed organs to perform their regular functions, in such cases ridding the system of poisons that might accumulate.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean of the Bible School, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(©, 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for January 10

FIVE MEN BELIEVE ON JESUS

LESSON TEXT—John 1:35-49.

GOLDEN TEXT—Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.—John 1:29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Five Men Follow Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Seeking and Finding Jesus.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Bringing Others to Christ.

Through the testimony of John the Baptist, his disciples were pointed to Jesus. This same testimony he gave the previous day.

I. Two of John's Disciples Followed Jesus (vv. 35-37).

As a result of the Baptist's testimony, two of his disciples left him and followed Jesus. One of these was Andrew (v. 40) and presumably the other was John. When the Baptist pointed out Jesus as the Lamb of God, the long-expected Messiah, these disciples sought further acquaintance with Jesus. In view of John's request, they looked upon the Lord. This look was sufficient to induce them to follow Jesus. They had found what they believed. The proof of their belief was their following after Him. John speaks, the disciples hear and follow. The whole plan of salvation is wrapped up in this simple testimony and action.

II. The Two Disciples Abiding With Jesus (vv. 38, 39).

1. Jesus' Question (v. 38). When Jesus saw the disciples following Him, He inquired, "What seek ye?"

2. The Disciples' Reply (v. 39). They answer His question by inquiring as to His dwelling-place. Their reply showed their desire to go apart privately where they could disclose their hearts to Him. Knowing their hearts, He invited them to His place of abode; therefore, for the remainder of that day, they held sweet intercourse with the Master.

III. The Disciples Bringing Others to Jesus (vv. 40-46).

The very genius of Christianity is self-propagation. The usual method is to begin with those nearest us, home folk and relatives and pass out to ever-widening circles. The disciples who were with Jesus, in blessed fellowship, went at once to tell others of the priceless treasure they have found.

1. Andrew Brings Peter (vv. 40-42). This is a beautiful example of brotherly affection, expressing itself in bringing another to Christ. How can a true brother who has found Christ do aught but go and tell his brother? The best place to begin our testimony for Christ is among our kinsfolk (Luke 8:39). When Andrew had witnessed to Peter, he brought him to Jesus where he could speak with Him personally.

2. Philip Bringing Nathanael (vv. 43-46).

Christ found Philip the following day as He would go forth into Galilee. Philip followed Him in response to a personal invitation. As soon as Christ found him, Philip found Nathanael and witnessed to him concerning the messiahship of Jesus. He said unto him: "We have found Him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth" (v. 45). Christ is the sum and substance of the Old Testament. Nathanael was somewhat skeptical, but he was honest. Philip had the wisdom not to argue with him, but brought him to Jesus. It is frequently unwise to rebuke the skeptical for their lack of faith. The better way is to invite them to put Christ to a test.

IV. Nathanael Seeing and Hearing Jesus, Testifies of His Divinity (vv. 47-49).

As soon as Nathanael heard and saw Jesus all his doubts rolled away. Jesus proved that He was the omniscient One. We do not know what Nathanael was doing under the fig-tree. Perhaps he was praying for heavenly light and guidance, but Jesus saw him. He was evidently sincere. He who is willing to be led and to do shall surely come into the light (John 7:17). He who acts upon the light given shall see greater things (vv. 50, 51). Angels ascending and descending upon the Son of Man, with the open heavens, show that Jesus Christ is the means of communication between earth and heaven (Heb. 10:19, 20; Eph. 2:18; Gen. 28:12). This narrative concerning the experiences of the first disciples exhibits the following stages of Christian experience:

1. Hearing about Jesus (v. 36).
2. Looking upon Jesus (v. 36).
3. Following Jesus (v. 37).
4. Abiding with Jesus (v. 39).
5. Witnessing for Jesus (vv. 41-45).
6. Bringing others to Jesus.

Accomplishing Things

To think we are able, is almost to be so; to determine on attainment, is frequently attainment itself.

Live Near to God

Live near to God and so all things will appear small to you in comparison with eternal realities.

On Tuesday night before Xmas, there was a Xmas tree and T. G. C. A. local program at Petty's Fork school house. It was under the leadership of Miss Mary Marshall, and it was well rendered. Everybody who enjoys a good laugh should have been present.

Men and Money Make This Bank Secure

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
